enemy are three miles in their rear. General Samsonoff, with the Russian rearguard, is failing back as the Japanese advance. A number missing after the battle of Vafangow have rejoined their regiments. The Russian losses are expected to aggregate 3,500. The troops are in excellent condition, in spite of the fearful weather. The roads are ankle deep in mire, but the rains are now ceasing.

deep in mire, but the rains are now ceasing.

General Kuropatkin arrived here Monday, inspected General Stakelberg's corps and addressed the troops, saying;

"I shall see you seen again. We must settle with the Japanese promptly. Till then, we are not going home."

The men responded heartlly.

The general also addressed the regiments which specially distinguished themselves in the recent fighting and presented the St. Georgo's cross to 230 officers and men, who were drawn up on the platform of the railread station and gave the commander-in-chief a hearty send-off. Kuropatkin stood on the steps of his train as it moved out, and waved a farewell to the troops.

COLONEL EMERSON'S DEATH.

Believed That Real Story of Death of War Correspondent Has Not Been Learned.

Has Not Been Learned.

(By Associated Press.)

SEATTLE, WASH., June 22—The facts leading up to the shooting of Colonel Edward Emerson, Jr., war correspondent of the New York World in the fact East, are related by R. L. Dunn, correspondent in Korea for an American weekly magazine.

Mr. Dinn made this statement after being informed that Colonel Emerson was dead: "Colonel Emerson, as a military man, was well aware of the positions occupied by Japanese solders." Some time see he made the amount of the positions of intended to go through the Rissian lines and work from that vantage point.

"When it came that vantage point." When it came that vantage point.

"When it came that vantage point is panese military authoritie that Mr. Emerson intended to take this step an officer approache another representative of Emerson's panes and informed him that if the dearcety be further responsible for him safetyely be further responsible for bulks aftered by Mr. Emerson, 'said Mr. Dunn."

"I contemplated a move similar to that "I contemplated a move similar to that outlined by Mr. Emerson," said Mr. Dunn, "but the Japanese made it clear to me that it would not be wise for me to proceed. Emerson held papers which would have carried him through the Russian lines in safety. In view of these facts, I am inclined to think the real story of his death has not been learned."

SERVICE,

Death-Like Stillness Reigned While Rev. Mr. Whilden

Preached.

About a dozen deaf mutes of Richmond gathered last night in the lecture room of St. James Episcopal Church and attended the services conducted by the Rev. O. J. Whildin, general missionary to the deaf mutes of the South.

The service was an exceedingly interesting one and pathetic. Mr. Whildin delivered a sermon in the sign language. The little company gave him close atten tion and was ovidently much interested in what he had to say. There was not vice was conducted and the mutes kneit while the prayers were said by the preacher in gestures. To the outsider it was incomprehensible, but the carnestness with which all entered into the service made it very impressive.

Among the deaf mutes, Mr. Whildin is regarded as an eloquent man. He travels from place to place (preaching in this way. His work has been productive of much good in the South.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it, or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Rilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in The Richmond Dally Times-Dispatch. Don't make any mistake, but remember the mame, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
